ABOUT THIS COURSE

In today's time, whether it's about pursuing a career in the finance sector, starting a new business or even building your personal wealth, everything requires you to have a sound mind - with the numbers on the fingertips and a remarkable acumen.

Simpler concepts such as what is banking, investment, and equity are something that all should be aware of. Everyone, especially youngsters, needs early access to such financial literacy, regardless of what they pursue.

Welcome to Finance 101.

WHO IS THIS FOR

This course is for anyone who's keen on getting a glimpse of where the Financial sector stands today. It narrates the basics on what sort of opportunities lie ahead for those interested in finding out if they should pursue it professionally.

WHAT ALL WILL YOU LEARN?

BUSINESSES, ENTREPRENEURS, AND THEIR CAPITAL NEEDS

Before understanding the fundamentals of finance, let's first observe where all and how crucial a role does finance play in the current day.

BASICS OF FINANCE I

Now that we understand the role it plays, it's time to deconstruct basic concepts of Finance such as debt, equity, investments, and more in this session.

BASICS OF FINANCE II

We go a level deeper in the second session on the Basics of Finance to understand how and why money is raised in a business, more about equity, and other sources of finance.

BASICS OF FINANCE III

Now that we understand how money is raised in a business, the final session elaborates on what role an audit firm plays, what internal and external audits are, due diligence and compliances that need to be met while raising capital, and more.
